

It is within the power of the District Court, in accord with common practice, to stay plaintiff's civil action until the criminal case is ended. Wallace, 549 U.S. at 393-94. If plaintiff is ultimately convicted in his criminal case, and if this civil case would impugn that conviction, it will be dismissed under Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477 (1994). If not, plaintiff may move to reopen this case by filing a motion to reopen after the final disposition of his criminal charges.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff's motion to reconsider the stay of the case is
DENIED. [ECF No. 11]

Dated this 25th day of April, 2018.
